PARKS, RECREATION & COMMUNITY SERVICES

Teen Dance: The Teen Dance took place Friday, June 23rd from 6:30 - 9pm. About 100 kids attended, ranging in age from 6th - 9th Grade. A raffle was held with prizes from local businesses such as Best in the West, Carl's Jr., Norco's Best, Norco Nails, and Laser Family Fun Center and Active Ride Shop. Other activities included Polaroid pictures for a dollar, snack bar with lots of food and drinks, hula hoop contest, and big screen to play video games. Thank you to all of our volunteers, chaperones, and sponsors who donated items. 67 teens were in attendance at dance.

Aquatics Program: The Aquatics program is off to a great start this summer! A big thanks to the Recreation Department and Buildings Maintenance Crew for all their hard work on the renovation of this facility to get it up, running and in beautiful condition. Patrons at "The Plunge" are quite happy with the results!

The Norco Sea Devils swim team are having an awesome season this year. The Sea Devils won their first meet in 20 years on June 13 2006 with a final score: Norco 718 — La Sierra 510!

Now for the record breakers! Kaylee Roundy broke the 13-14 Girls 100 Freestyle with a 1:01.60 and Christopher Milici broke the 15-18 Boys 100 Backstroke record with a 1:04.06.

Congratulations Sea Devils!
